PRAYER BOOK DONATION

Results from our Member Survey indicated that many members are interested in making our services more interesting and dynamic. To address this concern, the Board has reviewed Mishkan T'filah, the new siddur of the Reform Movement, for use in our sanctuary. The new prayer book contains services for Shabbat and festivals?? and includes extensive commentaries, transliterations and other resources. The Union of Reform Judaism developed the new prayer book to replace the interim prayer book, Gates of Prayer, which we currently use.

We welcome your contribution to the Prayer Book Fund, in any amount, for these books. If you would like to donate copies of Mishkan T'filah in honor or memory of a family member or friend, a $36 donation for each book is requested. With your $36 donation, you can make a dedicatory inscription inside the book, details inside the form below.

TEMPLE ETZ RIMON MISHKAN T'FILAH PRAYER BOOK DONATION FORM

Temple Etz Rimon is planning to begin using Mishkan T'filah, the new siddur of the Reform Movement, in our services. The new prayer book contains services for weekdays, Shabbat and festivals and provides extensive commentaries, transliterations and other resources. We will alternate with our current prayer book, Gates of Prayer, but believe that using the new prayer book will provide more variety in our services.

We welcome your contribution to the Prayer Book Fund, in any amount, for the new books. If you would like to donate copies of Mishkan T'filah in honor or memory of a family member or friend, please send a $36 donation for each book that you are requesting.

I wish to donate to the Prayer Book Fund for the purchase of Mishkan T'filah Prayer Books.
